

Seasons Greetings

The CCAOI team wishes you a Happy and Prosperous Diwali.

CCAIO selected for the Best Practice and Editors Choice by Digital Literacy.org, U.S.

CCAIO, as an association has been working to empower people with the power of Internet and promoting Digital Literacy.

In recognition of this effort, Digital Literacy.org of U.S. has selected CCAOI for the Best Practice and Editors Choice (<http://www.digitalliteracy.org/>). According to the Digital Literacy Team, “Digital Literacy is an enabler and a catalyst for change in India. The impact of this association is significant – providing Internet access through the 180,000 cyber cafes and 75,000 Public Internet Access Providers”.

Digital Literacy.org which is part of Net Literacy, U.S, is an all-volunteer NGO. They promote best practices of various organizations, across the world for increasing digital literacy and digital inclusion. Their successes are a result of the support by the members in associations such as the International Internet Industry Association, the International ISP Association, together with ISPs, corporations, governmental organizations, and NGOs.

CCAIO Team Participates in KES 2010 as part of CMAI Delegates

CCAIO team attended the Korea Electronic Show 2010 held at Seoul from the 12th -15th of Oct, as a part of the Indian delegation from CMAI. The objective of the team was to understand the Korean gaming industry, learn about the various technological advances, user oriented services and best practices, followed by various nations to promote digital literacy and help empower the citizens. The CCAIO team then plans to introduce such people oriented services into the country.
